JERSEY CITY NEWS.

Move in the Direction of a Pure Water

Supply for the City. Jersey City may yet get a pure water supply. At the Board of Public Works meeting last evening a resolution to readvertise for bids for a new supply was adopted, Col. Fuller, on behalf of Bayonne, having declared that its people would no longer drink the polluted water furnished them by Jersey City. Several months ago the Board advertised for bids and accepted that of J. R. Bartlett &

Co., who have acquired the entire Passaic co., who have acquired the entire Passaic water-shed above the Patterson falls and practically formed a water monopoly.

Bartlett agreed to furnish the water at the city reservoirs for $37.50 per million gallons, but the Board of Finance refused to concur in the award. Bartlett will now make a second bid, and it will probably be accepted.

Havlin and Murphy Anxious to Meet

O'Rourke and Holske Will Settle the Matter on Monday.

Proposition to Double the Stakes and

BOSTON, Aug. 4.—It is drawing it mild to say that Frank Murphy, the English feather-weight champion, is dissatisfied with the result of the contest with Haviln near New York Thursday, and when he read an article this morning emanating from Thomas O'Rourke, it set him and his backer in a rage. coach their man, contrary to the agreement made before the "mill" started, and in order that they should not have it all their own way, Ed Holske notified Murphy to take his time about forcing matters and keep cool. On one occasion Haviin mistook Holske's expression for the timekeeper's orders, and walked towards the corner, Murphy doing likewise. It was then that quite an argument followed, when the referee ordered the men together again, only eight seconds' time being lost thereby.

Murphy was then as strong as his opponent and Murphy was then as strong as his opponent and fit to force the pace, so his friends claim, and the misunderstanding was really a benefit to Havlin and a detriment to Murphy.

Ed C. Holske, backer of Murphy, called on The Evening World representative and said that he would not draw down Murphy's portion of the money without first trying to settle beyond dispute that his man was the superior of Havin. He claims that he kept time throughout, and when Murphy had Havin beaten to death in the forty-seventh round the time-keeper "chopped" the three minutes by forty-five seconds, while the rest that followed was fully by instead of 1 minute.

At that critical point it saved flavith from certain defeat and afforded the owner of the pavillon an opportunity to order the match called off in the next five minutes, on the plea that protonging the affair would place the men in danger of arrest.

Mr. Holske desires the following card to be published, noping thereby to bring matters to a successful termination:

I notice in a contemporary this morning that lished, noping thereby to bring matters to a successful termination:

I notice in a contemporary this morning that Thomas O'Rourke expressed a desire to renew the Murphy-Hawlin nght, and stipulates it shall be five weeks off and the stake money doubled. I have only to say that Frank Murphy is ready and waiting to finish the undecided match in a week from date under the conditions of the original articles, that is to weigh 11s bounds each on entering the ring on properly balanced weakes, and to fight on turf, each side to be restricted to twelve men. The same gentieman to officiate as referee, and the stake-nolder to find the battle-ground and conduct the privileged parties to the selected spot.

If Havim is not injured any more than his friends claim, he should be prepared to resume the fight in a reasonable length of time. In the event of Havilin's being so badly injured that it would preclude has entering the ring within a week, then I will agree to the stakes being doubled and the match take place six weeks hence, the same articles to prevail.

I will be at the Boston Herald office at 3 officers.

I will be at the Boston Herald office at 5 o'clock on Monday afternoon prepared to decide upon another date. The same referee, however, must officiate, because any decision that he may give will be beyond question or dispute. I want the Murphy-Havlin affair settled, in order that subsequently I can make a proposition to other men at 11s pounds.

Its pounds.

In conclusion, I have only to say that myself and each one of Murphy's financial friends were opposed to a draw, and were only acting in good faith when demanding a finish at the ring side.

(Signed) Er. C. Holzke.

BRIDGE-JUMPER BYRNES.

Matthew Byrnes, the young man who yesterday jumped from the Brooklyn Bridge into the East River, was resting quietly this morning at the Long Island College Hospital. His condition is very much improved and there is now very little doubt that he will soon be able to be about.

He is still somewhat reticent and, beyond denying that he attempted to commit suicide, has little or nothing to say.

It is not at all unlikely that as soon as he is able to leave the hospital he will be taken before a Police Justice and tried for violating a bridge ordinance. If convicted he will have to work under Warden Green in the Panitentiary for a year.

He had spoken to her of jumping from the bridge while they were still engaged. She tired of his eccentric talk and threw him over. After that he became negligent in his work, and once or twice threatened to shoot himself.

He had been employed by M. E. Wygant, a Port Richmond liveryman.

Giants Won the Game.

SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD. Ball Grounds, Boston, Aug. 4.—There was a big crowd out to-day to see the closing game between the Giants and Bean-Eaters. No city but Boston would pour shekels into the pockets of a cinb which loses so persistently as has the local team for the past month.

Keily thought he was fit to play, and so Ciarkson and himself did the battery work. The great Michael promised to show the Gothamites what ball-playing was, and it is certainly about time for Clarkson to pitch in a winning game. Four thousand people were present. Weather hot and cloudy. The batting order:

Kelly, c. Kay, s. s. Nash, 3d b. Johnston, c. f. Wise, 1st b. Hornung, r. f. Klosman, 2d b. Clarkson, b.

Ewing, c. Kinsman, 2d b. Welch, p.

Welch, p.

Umpire—Lon Knight.

First Inning—Kelly hit an easy fly to Tiernan.

Ray and Nash were both retired on hard hit grounders, which Richardson fielded to first.

Gore fanned ont and the mob applanded. Richardson reached first on a famble by Ray. Clarkson caught Ward's pop fly. Richardson succeeded in stealing second, but was left there, Tiernan flying out to Brown.

Second inning—Johnston hit sharply to Whitney and retired at first. Wise went out from Ward to Connor and Hornung popped up a foul which Ewing squeezed close to the back stop.

The crowd greeted Connor as he came to the bat very warmly, but didn't cheer a little bit when he cracked a asfe one past second. O'Hourke pounded a grounder through Sam Wise's legs and Connor ran to third. Whitney made a good try for a single, but Brown was playing very short right and succeeded in catching it just before it fell to the ground.

Then O'Rourke made a daisy for second. Kelly threw to Ray, whose slow return of the ball to the plate allowed Connor to score. Ewing went out. Ryan to Wise, and O'Rourke ran to third. Welch hit a liner which Klusman caught. One ron. Third Inning—Brown hit a grounder, which Connor carried to first. Klusman hit a high fly to Hichardson and Clarkson was disposed of in the same manner.

Connor carried to drst. Klusman hit a high fy to Hichardson and Clarkson was disposed of in the same manner.

Gote a sin struck out, and seemed very much amused atom something. The third time Hichardson tried to hit the bail he succeeded and planted a stinging single to right centre. Ward's bunied sacrifice to Clarkson advanced Danny to second, but Tiernan's bounder, which Clarkson deided to first, retired the side.

Fourth Inning—Kelly proved an easy out, Whitney fielding als bounder to Connor ten feet ahead of the base. Weisn took care of Ray's grounder. Ward scored an assist from Nash's quick bounder, and for the feurth time the home team were retired one, two, three order.

Clarkson gave Connor his base on bails and the big fellow went down to second on a wild pitch. O'Rourke hit to Clarkson, who threw to Ray and Connor was tonched out at second. Whitney knocked a grounder to Ray, who touched second, retiring O'Hourke and then threw to first in time to double up Whitney.

Firth Inning—Johnston sent a high fly to Gore, who misjudged and Dickey went to second. He took third on Wise's sacrifice bounder to Ward and scored on Whitney's slight fumble of Hornung's hard-hit grounder.

Weich had two strikes called on him and then hit a clean single to left. Gore for the third time struck out and for once did not laugh about it. Hichardson, however, was equal to the emergency and smashed a double to the left-field fence. Weich scored on the hit and Richardson took third on Hornung's throw in.

Ward made a safe one to left and went to second on Tiernau's base hit in the same direction. Connor knocked an easy grounder to Wise, who threw to Clarkson on first, but the latter muffed and Ward scored, while Ternan took third. The latter scored on Kelly's bad throw to second to catch Connor. O'Rourke then took a hand in the circus and pounded out a double to left, on which Connor scored.

A passed ball advanced O'stourke to third, and Kelly was hissed by the crowd for not throwing to third after he had recovered the ball. Witney went out from Nash to Wise. Five runs.

Sixth Inning—Ciarkson was applauded as he came to the bat. He retired on a high fly to Gore. Kelly faced Weich and 4,000 people broke out in inductiminate yells and hisses, which lasted throughout the time it took Weich to pitch four halls and until Kelly had gone out from Ward to Connor. The applause then drowned the hisses. Hay hit safely to right and went to second on Nash's scorching bounder which Weich tried to stop with one hand. O'Rourke prevented scoring by making a grand catch of Johnston's long fly listo left.

by making a grand catch of Johnston's long fly into left.

Ewing led off with a high fly, which sailed away over Hornung's head and struck the fence in far left field. Buck walked to accound on the hit. We,ch filed out to Brown. Gore fouled out to Wase and Hichardson retired, from Nash to Whee. Seventh inning—Wise took first on balls and Mickey kicked himself. Hornung banged a beauty to right, sending Wise to third, and the latter scored an earned run on Brown's timely single to left.

latter scored an earned run on Brown's timely single to left.

Hornung went to second on the hit. Klusman fied out to Richardson and Clarason went out from Welch to Connor.

Kelly was greeted with a tremendous burst of enthusiastic applianse—that time minus the biases, Ewing held a rather long consultation with Welch, and the crowd yelled "play ball,"

Kelly did so. He hit sately past second, bringing in both Hornung and Brown. The crowd went wild size, Buck?" you have it all fire. Buck?"

Kelly stole second and there were many cheers, which died away as Kay was retired on a grounder ner and reacted that turned.

Ward scored on the hit, and a moment later a wild pitch sent Tiernan nome. Five balls gave Connor first, and Ray's moff of Nash's throw from O'ltourke's grounder gave itager second and Sirkers

The favorite, Mr. Withers's Minority fliry, captared the Red Bank Stakes, for two-year-olds, very handily, almost making a runaway of it, her nearest opponent, the Gondola filly, being six lengths before My Fellow, the third to finish.

Lots of money went on Badge before the race for the Palisade Btakes, from The Bard's lesson on Thursday. Mr. Belmont's declaration was to win with Raceland, and many though the Coney Island race in which Oyster made the pace, and then let his stable companion canter home with the prize, would be repeated?

Geo. Oyster made the pace to the stable turn before Badge came by and was first into the homestretch, with Raceland, who had moved up close, behind Geo. Oyster. Badge swung wide and Listlewood on Oyster, thinking it was an easy thing for Raceland, pulled up to give his stable companion an easy victory.

It looked Raceland a Turlong from home, but Badge came by aear the stand, and all Garrison's riding could not save wild cheers for a victory for the green and orange.

Mr. Withers named his minority filly, Minion.
